This award highlights the team that colours outside the lines, dares to innovate, and brings magic to the ordinary. This team is artistic, imaginative, and creative.

COURAGE BREAST CANCER SURVIVORSHIP GROUP

Initiated on a voluntary basis by a multidisciplinary cohort of clinical staff, the programme was conceived to offer a dignified, supportive platform for breast cancer patients and survivors through thoughtfully curated events. Operating with limited financial resources, the team demonstrated exceptional commitment by contributing their own time, skills, and resources, crafting decorative items and independently securing sponsorships. Their efforts resulted in a diverse portfolio of meaningful activities that not only enriched patient engagement but also empowered experienced patients to mentor those newly diagnosed, while simultaneously inspiring broader participation from fellow colleagues across departments.

ED ESS WORKGROUP

The Emergency Department's fast-paced, high-pressure environment often drives teams to operate in silos. To counter this, the ESS workgroup—comprising clinicians, nurses, and operations staff—was established to strengthen interdepartmental cohesion through structured social activities. Guided by the TRICEP principle of interdependence, the team promoted active listening, open communication, and camaraderie.
